

The Western Ottawa Community Resource Centre seeks Board Members for the 2018-2019 fiscal year

Are you passionate about your community? Are you seeking ways to contribute to your community?

As a member of the Western Ottawa Community Resource Centre's Board of Directors, you will have the opportunity to do just that.

The Western Ottawa Community Resource Centre offers health and social services and programs to benefit individuals of all ages in far west Ottawa. Leadership of the Centre is provided by a Board of Directors.

The Centre is currently looking for young professionals, seasoned experts and everything in between to fill vacancies on the Board of Directors for fiscal year 2018-2019. Our current Board of Directors is comprised of a passionate, diverse group of individuals from various disciplines and stages of careers. What do these Directors all have in common? They care about their community and want to promote positive change. Come join our team and help the WOCRC provide and coordinate accessible community, health and social services for the benefit of your family, neighbours and larger community.

If interested, please send your application to careers@wocrc.ca by April 9 at 9 a.m. Your submission should include a letter of interest and a résumé outlining your qualifications. Please highlight any HR, finance or fundraising skills that you offer. Identifying as Francophone or residing in rural West Carleton will be considered assets. Nominations will be reviewed by the selection committee. The approximate time commitment for this position is five hours every month.
